Tina Sams, Maryanne Schwartz : Making Your Own Incense: Storey Country Wisdom Bulletin A-226 before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Making Your Own Incense: Storey Country Wisdom Bulletin A-226:

3 of 3 people found the following review helpful. MehBy Robin AlwineThis pamphlet is short and includes pretty common information. For the absolute beginner to incense, it provides a bit of knowledge and history, but the basic information on making your own incense is, for me, less-than-satisfactory in that it's too basic. I wanted to know about combining scents, creating other types of incense besides plain soaked joss sticks, and the like. I didn't find that here.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Great referenceBy Tanya PConcise and informative. I wanted to know more about what various options would bring to an incense blend and this delivered. I'll refer to it often.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Looking to making incense- start here!By Emily MassarottiYes! Don't be fooled by this book's humble looks, it is unending useful and informative. Sure you won't have lots of colorful pictures but they aren't necessary and the price is great because it doesn't have a ton of stuff you don't need but everything you do. Looking to start making incense- start here!
