Bishop Titus Masika : Mindset Change For Community Transformation before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Mindset Change For Community Transformation:

A book anyone who is interested in real peoples development should not only read but also treat as a guide to effective community mobilisation that achieves sustainable livelihoods for a people. An easy read and step by step capacity building treatise for every reader and learner.

About the Author Bishop Titus Masika is the founder and director of Christian Impact Mission. CIM is a non-political, non-denominational, non-governmental development agency that has continuously sought to develop models and training tools for community transformation. The impact of his project has won national and international acclaim. Together with his wife, Rev. Agnes Masika, they have a passion to empower communities to break free from poverty and reliance on aid. They have made a significant contribution to the transformation efforts in Ukambani.
