Jane Field-Lewis : My Cool Treehouse: An Inspirational Guide to Stylish Treehouses before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised My Cool Treehouse: An Inspirational Guide to Stylish Treehouses:

Great photos- best book in Jane's series so far....By Rockguy30Liked it a lot- a good selection of builds- some designers/builders I knew I'd find in here, and some surprises. I'll confess that I usually have books sent to me and reviewed for my blog and youtube series to help promote them (Its what I do- with close to 200,000 subscribers), but this publisher blew me off and wouldn't send a press copy (a missed opportunity/ it would infuriate me if I was an author)- however, being a big tree house fan, I bought it anyway as I wanted to support the author and won't let that cloud my judgement. I like past books in this series, and I honestly feel that this one is the best of them. Great photos.

Using high-end interiors, landscape and lifestyle photography and styling in the specially commissioned images (shot in all seasons and weather conditions), this book showcases 35 treehouses with different budgets and styles, from the rustic that seem to disappear into the foliage to the futuristic made out of contemporary materials. The accompanying narrative for each of these genuine projects gives information about the location, the owners and their inspiration as well as style notes.

About the AuthorJane Field-Lewis is a stylist working in film and photography. Her previous books include My Cool Campervan, My Cool Shed, and many others in the series. Richard Maxted is a photographer whose clients include British Airways, Campbell's, Jim Beam, and the Victoria and Albert Museum.
