Sabina Marreiros : New China Space before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised New China Space:

New Chinese Space takes its readers through a collection of the newest and the most exciting projects that have sprung up over recent years in China. Packed with vivid, large format photographs, architectural drawing and brief introductions, this book is a delightful presentation of the new trends and styles. In total there are 26 projects featured in this book, all the projects is the collection from Hangzhou, Tianlan Architectural Institute.
