Be your own general contractor. A solid foundation for organization. Owner-Builder Organizer is designed to help those acting as their own general contractor with the many steps and details involved with the planning and construction of a new home, including: *Developing a budget *Choosing/creating, customizing, and reading Plans

*Identifying, evaluating, and working with suppliers *Finding, evaluating, hiring, and managing subcontractors
*Creating a construction schedule *Understanding pre-building requirements *Organizing paperwork related to financing, plans, materials, subs/suppliers, schedules, and legal documents The organizer also includes many checklists, schedules, and contact sheets to help owner-builders enter important information and stay on track. And with a fully concealed Wiro binding, a wipe-clean paper-over-board cover, and pocket folders on the inside front and back covers, Owner-Builder Organizer is as handy as it is durable, allowing readers to carry it with them wherever they go and make use of it once they're there.
