I am not a bit disappointed and enjoy just picking it up and looking at the detail. The artist, Gudmund Aarseth, is a talent worth enjoying for many years to come. His detail is amazing and it is so very good in seeing the dimension added in detail to teach how the items come together to a beautiful finished product. Again, I just really like to look at it as one of my favorite table top books.I would gladly purchase any more of similar quality and wish for patterns published from this artist anytime.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. not what I expected. It is interesting but not exactly what I wanted. My book on Norwegian rosemaling has more inspiration than this book. Thank you. 3 of 3 people found the following review helpful. Painted rooms. By chella This is one of my favorite books on Scandinavian painting. This book is very informative and has a lot of pictures showing the finished products.

Traditional decorative arts meet contemporary living in the Scandinavian interiors of Sigmund Aarseth. Painted Rooms presents an impressive variety of beautifully painted interiors, from colorful traditional Norwegian farmhouses to exciting commercial interiors. The book shows the innovation, experimentation and individuality which has always been an important part of the Norwegian psyche. It also documents a renewed demand for colorful, decorated rooms in Norway. The broad range of styles and techniques featured in this book makes it a valuable resource for anyone with an interest in interiors, decorative arts or Scandinavian lifestyles and traditions. It is also an indispensable reference book for decorative artists, interior designers and crafts people of any discipline. Contains more than 200 color photographs by Gudmund Aarseth

About the Author Sigmund Aarseth is best known for his landscape paintings in his native Norway, and renowned in the United States as a master Rosemaler. With this book he gives us an exclusive presentation of his interior work for the first time. It showcases the highlights of a career spanning almost 40 years and gives you an insight into his unique artistic vision. About the photographer: Gudmund Aarseth, Sigmund's son, is a graphic designer and photographer currently based in Edinburgh, Scotland. Gudmund worked closely with Sigmund in order to produce the photographs and accompanying text for this book.
