More Power, Tim!By CA BreedingThis book review is different, because Power Tools:Top Executive Coaches Put You on the Fast Track to Successis different. The brainchild of Ann Mah, a Legislator in State ofKansas, in her spare time brought nineteen of the best Business Personal Coaches to share their insights, in one chapter. "Successis what you do in your spare time."The result is a three-part focus with six chapters in each section:essential tools for managers, tools to build winning teams, and highimpact leadership. For the reason that this is a multi-authored bookgives it a special diversity of solid viewpoints, but on a far-reachingarea of topics: from giving and receiving feedback, office politics for women, career management (hang on for the ride!), to foreign service etiquette and an amazing array of foundational leadership skills for success.If you struggle upon occasion with the "boss" or as the leader, strugglewith your employees, the book is a must-read. At just 227 pages and the suggested $14.95 price, it's a steal for your library - or gift to your boss!In the back of the book are more pages of resources for personal-development minded people representing the 18 coaches superb products. The book may change your paradigm -- your pattern of thinking -- about supervision, management and leadership -- lessons that often spillover to your personal life quality.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. great help for any supervisor who wants to do well at their jobBy Jennie SalinasI had the pleasure of meeting David Nelson at the Navigator 2007 conference for 911 dispatchers in Las Vegas, his classes were fantastic great man, when I got home I bought this book.!!!(david nelson is one of the authors)Outstanding ideas for anyone who wants to be a great supervisor.
